FINANCIAL AID - To support their educational expenses (tuition and stipend), the School of Medicine encourages all applicants to apply for graduate fellowships from appropriate U.S. and international agencies. If you have obtained such funding, please indicate source and amount below. You will be required to disclose such external support at the time of matriculation.

a) I have applied for external support ___Yes ___No b) I have received external support ___Yes ___No ___

Source _____ Amount _____

If accepted to a Ph.D. program, applicants unable to obtain external support will be considered for financial aid in the form of a tuition scholarship, health insurance, and a stipend to cover living expenses. The stipend for the 2009-2010 academic year is $27,125 (unless otherwise noted*). The tuition is $38,300.

*Applicants accepted to the Medical and Biological Illustration; History of Science, Medicine, and Technology; Applied Health Sciences Informatics; and Health Science Informatics programs may apply for financial aid as outlined in the General Instructions. Applicants to these programs may also contact the program directly for specific information regarding funding. Please note that the Office of Financial Aid can provide financial assistance only for U.S. Citizens and Permanent Residents. International applicants are not eligible for U.S. government funding. For this reason, we strongly advise international students to apply for external funding.

Have you ever discontinued attendance or been dismissed from any school or college? ___Yes ___No

Have you ever been subject to disciplinary action or placed on probation by a college or university? ___Yes ___No

If answer is Yes to above questions, please provide details (attach additional sheet if necessary). _____

Background Checks: It is the policy of the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine that all incoming members to the community, including faculty, students, and staff, must undergo criminal background checks. As a result, applicants admitted to a graduate program will undergo a criminal background check prior to matriculation. In the event of an unsatisfactory finding, the School of Medicine may withdraw its offer of admission. If you wish to disclose any offense that may be revealed by this procedure, we invite you to do so at this time on a separate attachment.

I affirm that the information on this application form, and any additional information that I submit related to the admissions process, is complete, accurate, and true to the best of my knowledge and contains no significant omissions. I understand that providing false statements or omitting material information on any part of this application may be cause for denial of admission, cancellation of registration, expulsion from the University, or revocation of a degree.

No student will be allowed to matriculate until the School of Medicine has received proof of graduation and an official transcript from an accredited undergraduate program.

If I am admitted to study at the Johns Hopkins University, I agree that I will honor the University's academic and ethical standards and that I will abide by all requirements established by the University concerning academic progress, health and conduct. I agree that the University may dismiss any student whose academic standing is unacceptable or whose general conduct jeopardizes the community or is otherwise unacceptable.

General Instructions

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS: Requirements specific to each program are noted in The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine Catalog and the graduate program website: <http://www.hopkinsmedicine.org/graduateprograms>. Unanswered questions can be resolved by contacting the program to which you are applying (see graduate program website).

TRANSFERS: Applicants desiring to transfer from another school must be in good standing at the school previously attended.

FINANCIAL AID: Inquiries concerning financial aid (U.S. Citizen and Permanent Resident) may be sent to: The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, Student Financial Aid Services, Reed Hall, 1620 McElderry St., Suite 427, Baltimore, MD 21205-1911, or telephone (410) 614-3450. E-mail: finaid@jhmi.edu

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: Applications and supporting documents must be submitted by the dates listed below:

December 8	Neuroscience
December 15	Biomedical Engineering
January 1	Cellular and Molecular Medicine
January 4	Program in Molecular Biophysics
January 10	Biochemistry, Cellular and Molecular Biology Biological Chemistry Cellular and Molecular Physiology Functional Anatomy and Evolution Human Genetics and Molecular Biology Immunology Pathobiology Pharmacology and Molecular Sciences
January 15	History of Science, Medicine, and Technology
February 1	Applied Health Sciences Informatics Health Sciences Informatics (supporting materials due 2/15)
February 21	Medical and Biological Illustration – (Art Portfolios and Applicant Profiles due January 15)

APPLICATION FEES: Application fees are non-refundable, and receipt is required before an application can be processed. The fee schedule is indicated below. You may pay the fee either by credit card at the time of application, or by check (U.S. bank) or money order (U.S. currency) payable to THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY. No other forms of payment are accepted. Paper applications are available upon request. ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS

1. The Program in Molecular Biophysics graduate program is solely supported by a NIH Training Grant for which only U.S. Citizens or Nationals and Permanent Residents are eligible.
2. The Biochemistry, Cellular and Molecular Biology graduate program requires International applicants to submit a pre-application. The pre-application may be found on the program website: <http://biolchem.bs.jhmi.edu/bcmb/application/preapplication.shtml>
3. Will you be able to arrive in August (July for BME) for the beginning of the academic year? _____ If not, when can you arrive and please explain the delay. _____

The Johns Hopkins University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, religion, age, sexual orientation, national or ethnic origin, disability, marital status or veteran status in any student program or activity administered by the University, or with regard to admission or employment. Defense Department policies regarding sexual orientation in ROTC programs conflict with this University policy. The University continues its ROTC program, but encourages a change in the Defense Department policy. Questions regarding Title VI, Title IX and Section 504 should be referred to the Office of Institutional Equity, Garland Hall 130, Telephone: (410) 516-8075, (TTY): (410) 516-6225.

TRANSCRIPTS: Official transcripts of certified records of all university (undergraduate and graduate) study must be submitted. Please have your official transcript sent directly from your previous institution to Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. Transcripts must be in a sealed university envelope to be considered official. If you have attended more than one institution, transcripts from each must be received. If information on your current courses is not included in your transcript, please send a list of your current courses, and courses to be taken before beginning graduate study. Please note that transcripts are not returnable.

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION: Please request letters of recommendation from faculty members or other professionals who are acquainted with you and your academic work. These letters should comment on your aptitude and promise for independent research. See list below for number of letters required by each program. NO FORMS ARE REQUIRED FOR LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION.

GRADUATE RECORD EXAMINATION AND TEST OF ENGLISH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE: INSTITUTION CODE 5316 for Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine graduate programs. No Department Code is necessary. Scores reported to the wrong Institution Code may result in your application status being considered incomplete. Students should request that the results of the GRE and TOEFL test be sent directly to: Institution Code 5316, Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. See list below for program-specific requirements. TOEFL or IELTS scores are required for all international students. You may submit your application without test scores and send the report when it becomes available.

ETS Personal Potential Index reports are not required. If you choose to send them please direct the reports to Institution Code 5316.

Medical College Admissions Test: MCAT scores are not required. If you plan to submit MCAT scores, please send a copy of the official results, including verification code, to the Johns Hopkins University, Office of Graduate Student Affairs (address listed above).
