JHH Pathology Diversity Fast Facts

Day Observed	Fast Facts
LGBT Pride Month (Observed Month-long)	Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Pride Month (LGBT Pride Month) is currently celebrated each year in the month of June to honor the 1969 Stonewall riots in Manhattan. The Stonewall riots were a tipping point for the Gay Liberation Movement in the United States.
Laylat al-Qadr (June 10)	An Islamic observance that marks the anniversary of the night Muhammad received the first verses of the Qu'ran. It goes by many names in English and these names include The Night of Measures, Night of Power, Night of Decree and Night of Destiny. It is also known as Shab-e-Qadr. In many Islamic countries, this day is observed on one of the odd nights of the last nights of Ramadan
Eid al-Fitr (June 15)	An Islamic holiday that occurs on the first day of Shawwal and marks the end of Ramadan. In some countries, it may also start the beginning of a three day feast. Because the date of this holiday is set according to the lunar Islamic calendar, it is not possible to determine accurately using a Gregorian calendar because the end of Ramadan is set by the confirmed sighting of the new moon.
World Blood Donor Day (June 14)	Established in 2004, June 14 serves to raise awareness of the need for safe blood and blood products. World Blood Donor Day thanks the blood donors for their voluntary and life saving gifts.
Father's Day (June 17)	First observed in 1908, Father's day honors fathers and father-figures on the third Sunday in June.
Dragon Boat Festival (June 18)	Chinese- The Dragon Boat Festival (Duanwu Festival, Duānwǔ Jié, Double Fifth, Tuen Ng Jit) is a traditional holiday that commemorates the life and death of the famous Chinese scholar Qu Yuan (Chu Yuan). The festival occurs on the fifth day of the fifth month on the Chinese lunisolar calendar.
World Refugee Day (June 20)	Established worldwide in 2001, World Refugee Day annually commemorates the obstacles refugees face each year, while also celebrating their courage and strength.
Taoist Festival Honoring Shang-Ti (June 21)	The Taoist festival honoring Shang Ti celebrates the peak of the masculine yang half of the year. Shang Ti is known as the Heavenly Emperor. Heaven and earth are considered a continuum—those who reside in heaven are the ancestors (ti) who are ruled by the supreme ancestor (Shang Ti).
